“In my opinion, too many legislators in Columbia make decisions based on what lobbyists tell them – or worse, because of the special interest money they have taken. I don’t take PAC special interest money so that I am able to focus solely on doing what works for us in Beaufort County,” Davis said. “Gov. Mark Sanford’s ‘Open Door After 4’ meetings are critical to his decision-making process, and I expect the Talk to Tom forums to be the same for me. I need to know where my constituents stand on the issues because that’s how real change starts – by listening and understanding where people are really coming from.”
